ARTECH

FUSION 18

Friday, March 16th, 6:30 – 9:30 PM
Acadiana Center for the Arts

Our sixth ArTech Fusion at the Acadiana Center for the Arts will once again feature performances and talks that promote and highlight the dynamic relationships between the Arts and Technology. Join us to engage in unique performances that feature video, dance, stop motion, theater and music. Additionally, we will be honoring our SPARK Lifetime Achievement Award Winner, Edward C. Mathes, AIA.

ArTech Fusion, the central event of the Festival of the Arts, is an exciting and inspiring celebration of the innovative, creative work by faculty, students, and community partners, fostered by digital resources at the College of the Arts at University of Louisiana at Lafayette, and in our local community.
